

ASHLEY A. LAMEIRAS

100 Robertson Street, Apt 1L, Quincy, MA 02169
lameirasashley@gmail.com
(508) 838-0960

EDUCATION

Salus University

George S. Osborne College of Audiology: Elkins Park, PA

November 2020

Doctor of Audiology

Worcester State University: Worcester, MA

Bachelor of Science: Communication Sciences & Disorders

May 2016

SKILL HIGHLIGHTS

- Experience assessing and evaluating the auditory and vestibular systems providing appropriate recommendations
- Experience working with multidisciplinary teams to determine diagnostic testing and treatment plans for complex cases
- A track record of compassionate, effective care
- Effective communications skills, both oral and written
- Excellent organizational and multitasking skills

EMPLOYMENT

Rhode Island Ears, Nose and Throat Physicians/ Hearing Centers of Rhode Island: Offices in Cranston, Cumberland, Johnston, and Providence Rhode Island
November 2020- present

- Provide comprehensive audiologic evaluations for pediatric, adult, geriatric and special needs populations
- Pediatric audiologic testing including: Visual Reinforcement and Condition Play Audiometry
- Perform comprehensive adult vestibular function testing including: Videonystagmography, Vestibular Evoked Myogenic Potential (VEMPs), and Electrocochleography (ECoG).
- Perform auditory brainstem response testing (ABR).
- Immittance and otoacoustic emission testing.
- Executed ENT coverage for both pediatric and adult populations
- Provide aural rehabilitation services including hearing aid and assistive device evaluation and selection, fitting, follow-up, and repair with extensive experience in Oticon and Phonak at all levels of technology.
- Provide ear impressions for custom molds and hearing protection and counseled on hearing loss prevention.
- Audited inventory on equipment and supplies for audiology clinic and hearing aid lab

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

Rhode Island Hospital: Providence, RI

June 2020- October 2020

Fourth Year Externship

- Provided comprehensive audiologic evaluations for pediatric, adult, geriatric and special needs populations
- Pediatric audiologic testing including: Visual Reinforcement and Condition Play Audiometry
- Immittance and otoacoustic emission testing
- Auditory brainstem response testing in the OR and pediatric sedation unit
- Neurodiagnostic auditory brainstem testing
- Provided comprehensive central auditory processing evaluations
- Performed cochlear implant mapping
- Executed ENT coverage for both pediatric and adult populations
- Conducted hearing aid evaluations, fittings and diagnostic services with extensive experience in Oticon and Phonak at all levels of technology.
- Provided evaluations, fittings, and programming for bone anchored hearing aid devices
- Took ear impressions for custom molds and hearing protection
- Checked in, verified, and performed listening checks on hearing aid devices that are for hearing aid fittings,

- repairs, walk-ins or drop-offs
- Audited inventory on equipment and supplies for audiology clinic and hearing aid lab

Boston Medical Center: Boston, MA	July 2019- March 2020
Rhode Island Hospital: Providence, RI	May 2019- July 2019
REM Audiology Associates: Marlton and Voorhees, NJ	January 2019 -May 2019
Capital Health: Hamilton and Pennington, NJ	August 2018-December 2018
Audiology Partners: Marlton, NJ	May 2018-August 2018
Pennsylvania Ear Institute: Elkins Park, PA	August 2016-May 2018

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS/CERTIFICATIONS

Rhode Island Licensed Audiologist	Current
Massachusetts Licensed Audiologist	Awaiting
ASHA Certificate in Clinical Competence in Audiology	Current
ASHA	Current
HIPAA	August 2016-Present
Adult and Pediatric CRP, AED, and BASIC FIRST AID	September 2017- Present

REFERENCES

References are available upon request.