ABOUT ME

I am undergraduate student in the Federal University of Technology Akure studying Computer Science. I am a graphic designer who owns a brand Creathor whose aim is to help small business owners build authority in their industry with high quality and convertible graphics.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Roheema Salaudeen

Senior level | Graphic Designer
Akure, Nigeria
2023-07-01 | 2023-10-01

I did a total branding for her small business and went on do doing social media designs for her social media page. She really loved the work. I would receive the content for the designs to be done and deliver the work the day before for any further correction.
