Professional Interests:	Adlerian My formal education has prepared me to counsel individual adults. I earned my bachelor's degree in Psychology with a minor in Counseling from the University of North Texas, and recently obtained my Master's in Clinical Mental Health Counseling. In my master's program, I gained experience working briefly with adults struggling to navigate issues such as anxiety, depression, loss of a loved one, low self-esteem, identity issues, perfectionism, spirituality, relationship conflict, academic stress, and life transitions. I also enjoy working with clients of color, those a part of the LGBTQIA+ community, couples, and survivors of domestic violence. Additionally, I absolutely love teenagers, especially teenage girls, and am passionate about working with adolescents.
