Initial contact with Dr. Guang Yang:

Dr. Yang will complete her Podiatry Residency in June of 2022. She is interested in Full-Time Podiatry opportunities, that can sponsor her H1b Visa.

At this point in her job search, Dr. Yang is interested in Hospital Employed or Private Practice opportunities. She is flexible in terms of Group size. Dr. Yang enjoys all aspects of Podiatry.

Dr. Yang's residency program works very heavily with the underserved population and she has gathered a wealth of diverse experience. She is comfortable with both in patient surgeries and high volume out patient services. She is flexible in terms of schedule.

Dr. Yang is ready to begin interviewing with employers and currently needs 1 to 2 weeks' notice prior to a formal interview to adjust her schedule.
