

Pierce Maslach MD

411 7th ave apt 4R, Brooklyn, New York, 11215, United States, Mobile: 1-608-209-2438, pmaslach@sgu.edu

---

Career Objective

To obtain a full-time position practicing internal medicine in an inpatient setting as a hospitalist or nocturnist.

Professional Interests

Professional Status : Practicing Physician

Professional Interests : Inpatient internal medicine

Profession

Physician

Specialities

Internal Medicine

Education

Schools

Saint George's University, Saint George

MD, 2021

Graduated cum laude

University of Minnesota - Twin Cities, Minneapolis, Minnesota

BA, 2013

Graduated with a BA in physiology

Academic Honors

2021

Graduated cum laude

Board Eligible

Internal Medicine

Experience

Internships, Residencies

The Brooklyn Hospital Center

Residency, Internal Medicine - Jul 2021 To Jun 2024

3 years of experience caring for a diverse patient population in both inpatient and outpatient settings at a community hospital in New York City. Training included education in the following subspecialties of internal medicine: cardiology, pulmonology, endocrinology, neurology, rheumatology, nephrology, hematology, oncology, gastroenterology, infectious disease, and critical care.

Accomplishments

Jan 2024

Volunteer activities include providing medical coverage at several sporting events in the community: 7 long-distance running events including the New York City Marathon 2023, 3 boxing tournaments in the New York City area, various team sporting events including high school football and lacrosse games.

Professional Activities

Publications

Title: Clinical characteristics and outcomes among COVID-19 hospitalized patients in a community hospital i

Publication: Journal of the Endocrine Society, Volume 5(April-May 2021), A336–A337., Apr 2021

Professional Societies

Highest Office Held: Resident Member

Professional Society: AMSSM

Other

Citizenship

U. S. Citizen

Languages

Spanish : Moderate fluency

English : Fluent