Interview 9/25/2023
Modified:

Ms. Kelley Fry is seeking a new position as a Nurse Practitioner beginning in October 2023. Ms. Fry states she is a board-certified FNP under ANCC. She expresses her interest in Endocrinology, Family Medicine, General Practice, Internal Medicine, Obstetrics & Gynecology, and Urgent Care.

Ms. Fry states she would like to work Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. She mentions she is comfortable performing basic office procedures and treating patients of all ages. Ms. Fry includes her interest in Direct Primary Care, Group Practice, and Employed Physician Practice settings, as well as her experience with Cerner, ECW, and Experity EMRs. When asked for any professional aspirations, Ms. Fry states she aspires to mentor new nurse practitioners and nurse practitioner students, develop protocols to holistically treat patients and improve health outcomes, continue to seek educational opportunities to develop new skills, continue to include current research to provide the most up to date evidence-based practices in patient care, advocate for interdisciplinary care, utilize strong communication skills and appropriate decision-making skills to lead an interdisciplinary team in patient care management and expand her professional network. When asked what qualities and attributes have best served her as the provider and individual she is today, as well as what potentially sets her apart, Ms. Fry includes her ability to communicate clearly and effectively with other team members and with patients, focus on the holistic treatment of patients and not solely "treating the disease", her ability to provide empathetic care, and her commitment to shared decision making with patients to increase compliance.

Geographically, Ms. Fry is seeking a position in Shelby County, AL, or Jefferson County, AL due to proximity to her home.

Regarding an in-person interview, Ms. Fry states she would prefer a notice 1-10 days before the said interview. She states she can attend virtual interviews, and would prefer an email as initial contact regarding a position.
