inDepth Interview

Interviewer: Interview Date: 6/7/2022
 Interview: 6/7/2022
 Modified:

Dr. Islam is seeking a full-time position serving outpatients and is ready to begin in February 2023 upon completing her residency. Work-life balance is essential, hence her schedule preference for four days a week, 8 - 4 (5 pm max). Additionally, Dr. Islam has years of teaching experience, and she would be interested in teaching residents or medical students. She is a board-certified IM physician and is training in a hospital with a high volume of patients and intense training. Under her residency training, she has covered every aspect of Internal Medicine, from Emergency Front Door to ICU. Dr. Islam is trilingual, speaking Bengali and Hindi besides, of course, English.

Dr. Islam has experience with Epic.

Dr. Islam is ready to begin interviewing with employers and needs one week's notice before a formal meeting. After taking the board exam on August 23rd, she will need only 24 hours' notice. She is also available for preliminary interviews via web conference and will need two days' notice.
