ABOUT ME

I am a graduate of Mass Communication with second class Upper honours.

I have had editorial experiences as an intern in media and broadcasting houses, adapting flexibly to their house styles. I am a fast learner, open-minded, and a good team player.

I have certification in Digital Ad Expert Course by Aleph and earned the Twitter Fundamentals Badge.

I am familiar with social media marketing and proficient in Social media Manager who is up to date with marketing strategies on various platforms.

Also, I am proficient with Writing, Designing Ad copies, and running social media content campaigns. I pride myself on offering rapid turnaround and quality products to my clients when I freelance and help an organization achieve its set goals and targets. I believe in the philosophy of distance not being a barrier to effective work.
